	Drew took and responded to questions. The committee discussed the impact of the results from the Governor's Commission report and making possible adjustments.
10:20 AM	ETPL Review Terry began by thanking Sarah Blalock and Molly Cook for their excellent work with the ETPL Policy workgroup. Terry reviewed the contents of the report and shared the workgroup's recommendations with the committee. Terry shared that he will be unable to attend the IWIB Quarterly meeting to seek approval in person, but he will provide a video.	Terry Wilkerson
10:40 AM	Recommendations for Name and Chair of New DEIA Committee Chairperson Hacker tabled this item to a later date, after more is known about the Commission's recommendations on DEIA. Tom encouraged the committee to keep thinking of possible chairs and a name for the committee. He reminded the group that the chair must be a member of the IWIB. Members were directed to send suggestions to John Rico, Marlon McClinton, and Aime'e Julian.	Tom Hacker
10:45 AM	Discussion on New IWIB Member Recommendations Chairperson Hacker reminded the group that his upcoming retirement will cause the IWIB business member percentage to fall out of compliance. Two nominations for IWIB membership have been shared: Kraig Kistingner and Jess Guidici (both are currently committee co-chairs). Tom stressed the importance of these nominations be reviewed as soon as possible. Chair Hacker said he would work with Aime'e on a letter to Kristy George recommending at least these two nominations are expedited so IWIB doesn't fall out of WIOA compliance.	Tom Hacker
10:53 AM	Approval of 2023 IWIB Calendar Aime'e presented the 2023 IWIB Calendar to the committee. IWIB Co-chair suggested that the July meeting be taken off the calendar. The adjustment will be made, and the schedule shared with the entire IWIB. Aime'e advised that retiring IWIB members will be recognized during the meeting on Dec. 8. Their names and a brief biography will be read and they will be presented with a thank-you gift. The gift will be shipped to retirees who are unable to attend.	Aime'e Julian
