

Remote Testing Options for WIOA Title I Programs

ABE/ASE Assessments	Administer Remotely?	More Information
TABE 11&12 Reading TABE 11&12 Math	Yes, if using TABE 11&12 computer-based tests. Paper tests cannot be given remotely. Up to 15 students can be tested at one time, but only 5 at a time is recommended.	In order to administer the TABE 11&12 test remotely, a program must be using the TABE computer-based test. Paper tests cannot be given remotely. Anyone who gives a student the TABE 11&12 must be trained in test administration. (Click HERE for more information.) Giving the TABE 11&12 remotely requires additional training because it is a labor-intensive process with very specific technology requirements including the use of a web conferencing platform such as Zoom. Click here to learn more about using the TABE 11&12: https://excellenceinadulthood.org/abe-ase-assessments. Questions about the TABE 11&12 should be sent to: Anita Kerr at iladedpdn@gmail.com
CASAS Reading GOALS CASAS Math GOALS 2	Yes, if using the computer-based eTest. Paper tests cannot be given remotely. Up to 15 students can be tested at one time, but only 5 at a time is recommended.	In order to administer the CASAS Reading GOALS or Math GOALS 2 test remotely, a program must be using the computer-based eTest. Paper tests cannot be given remotely. Remote proctors must complete 3 trainings: CASAS Implementation Training, CASAS eTests Proctor Certification, and Illinois Remote Proctor Training for CASAS. Administering the GOALS test remotely is a labor-intensive process with very specific technology requirements. Proctors must be able to use a web conferencing platform such as Zoom. Click here to learn more about using CASAS GOALS Reading and Math 2: https://excellenceinadulthood.org/abe-ase-assessments. Questions about the CASAS GOALS test should be sent to Anita Kerr at iladedpdn@gmail.com or Catherine Porter at cporter@cntrmail.org

ELA (English Language Acquisition) Assessments	Administer Remotely?	More Information
CASAS STEPS	Yes, if using the computer-based eTest. Paper tests cannot be given remotely. Up to 15 students can be tested at one time, but only 5 at a time is recommended.	To administer the CASAS Reading STEPS or Listening STEPS test remotely, a program must be using the computer-based eTest. Paper tests cannot be given remotely. Remote proctors must complete 3 trainings: CASAS Implementation Training, CASAS eTests Proctor Certification, and Illinois Remote Proctor Training for CASAS. Administering this test remotely is a labor-intensive process with very specific technology requirements. Proctors must be able to use a web conferencing platform such as Zoom. Click here to learn more about using CASAS STEPS: https://excellenceinadulthood.org/esl-assessments. Questions about the CASAS STEPS test should be sent to Catherine Porter at cporter@cntrmail.org

Please note: Some Title II students may be administered a BEST Plus 3.0 or BEST Literacy 2.0 assessment in their adult education programs, but these BEST tests will not be administered by Title I programs, as they do not result in grade level equivalencies.